WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance

(February 01, 2023 - Present)

All the hats

Time spent maintaining personal web sites from property rentals, bonsai store fronts, and one-off sites for friends and families.

Seamless.AI

(April 01, 2018 - February 01, 2023)

Principal Software Architect

A big data company, we used a browser extension that would constantly scrape visited web pages for a company's employees and their contact information. Streamlining the data into an S3 data lake, to be used and consumed by a React based web app for users to use as point-of-contacts and sales leads.
